the history of HACIENDA DE SAN ANTONIO®

suites

Thoughtfully decorated by owner Alix Marcaccini and interior designer Arman Aubery, Hacienda de San Antonio's 22 spacious Suites and 3 Grand Suites combine colonial grandeur with the spirit and tradition of a large Mexican house. Occupying 3 bougainvillea-covered sides of the house and offering Garden, Terrace and Volcano views, all suites are located across 2 stories around a plant filled courtyard. Decorated with hand-made wool carpets from Oaxaca, European textiles and art pieces from the personal collection of the family, each room has its own character and color palette.

Each of the 25 impeccably decorated suites uses the bright colors of Mexico and are complete with high-ceilings, working stone fireplaces and tiled bathrooms. Ground floor suites lead out to a shared volcanic stone terrace, and each of the second floor suites has its own step out balcony.

An overstuffed chair and matching footstool invite one to relax, whilst sipping a coffee or cocktail from the impressive minibar. Cashmere throws are provided for fresh mountain evenings, as are locally inspired amenities, including soap produced at the Hacienda's own Rancho Jabali.

Organic Gastronomy

Our refined cuisine is based on the finest traditional Mexican recipes, with the occasional touch of international influences. In addition to the main restaurant, meals are served in enchanted private corners of the Hacienda, and on request can be accompanied by a pianist or a traditional Mariachi band. A key characteristic of our dining experience is the use of seasonal and organic ingredients sourced directly from the Hacienda's organic gardens and farm, as well as from our sister property – Cuixmala. It is a daily tradition for our guests to gather in the Yellow Room for afternoon tea, lovingly prepared by the Hacienda's chefs.

Living Spaces

The Hacienda's richly detailed rooms provide a sumptuous backdrop to life at the Hacienda. The Yellow Bar, with its views to the garden, is the social hub for evening cocktails and lively conversation. The wood beamed library is a quiet retreat while the light filled Mirador room is ideal for reading or a movie. The striking Club Room with its volcanic stone columns is a place for dining, gathering or special events.
